

LOFT SUITES REDEFINE CRUISING ACCOMMODATIONS ON OASIS OF THE SEAS Royal Caribbean Brings Urban Living Concept to Sea With Cruise Industry's First Lofts

Miami, June 18, 2008 – To say that cruise ship accommodations have evolved since the first staterooms were designed would be an understatement. With Royal Caribbean International's next endeavor, Oasis of the Seas, the world's largest and most revolutionary cruise ship, the urban living concept takes to the high seas with the introduction of industry-first loft suites. The addition of the contemporary two-level suites will redefine cruise ship accommodations with vibrant, ocean-inspired colors in a sophisticated setting.

The lofts will be the highest accommodations at sea and will offer spectacular views of the ocean with floor to ceiling double-height windows to ensure the view will be enjoyed from every vantage point. Other features among these coveted 28 lofts will be a unique modern design dotted with abstract, modern art pieces, spacious living areas on the lower level with contemporary detailing, and a private balcony with sun chairs and stunning views to help guests unwind.

Each loft, which will measure 545 square feet (51 square meters) or larger when combined, and will be fitted in contemporary décor with a Caribbean influence. The impressive design will include an upper-level bedroom that overlooks the living area below and extended ocean views. Beds will be outfitted with white, luxurious duvets complemented by tropical blue and green accents that tie in to the loft's natural surroundings. The lofts will feature LCD televisions, separate vanity areas, a guest bathroom downstairs and master bathroom upstairs featuring his and her shower heads, fog-free mirrors, and limestone mosaic tile accents.

Following is a breakdown of the various accommodation types and the latest ground-breaking features that will bring them to life:

Lofts

- Royal Loft Suite: In addition to the 25 Crown Loft Suites onboard Oasis of the Seas, the exclusive Royal Loft Suite is available to accommodate groups of six. (141 sq. m.), it will feature its own Baby Grand piano, indoor and outdoor dining rooms that seat eight, private wet bar, a library and extended 843-square-foot (78.3-square-meter) balcony with its own LCD television, entertainment area and Jacuzzi. In addition to the loft suite accommodations, Oasis of the Seas will offer a variety of suites that appeal to guests looking for additional space and a variety of amenities that exceed the services offered at the stateroom level. While each suite varies in scope, these spaces will provide guests with private balconies, LCD televisions and more.
